Bilateral Agreements

A bilateral agreement is an agreement signed by two universities which choose to become partners to achieve common specific aims related to: student mobility, joint research activities and other types of cooperation.

Beneficiaries: Bachelor's and Master's students, Doctoral students, professors, research scholars (depending on the agreement).

Duration: 1 semester for course attendance.

Where: UniTrento has signed agreements with universities from all over the world (see the Download box).

Selection Call: Agreements regarding student mobility entail a yearly selection call for a mobility scholarship. See the international programmes calendar for information about publication of the calls. For information about the destinations available based on academic profiles, please check the last selection call available in the Download Box of the webpage "open selection calls".

Scholarships: Scholarships are granted for I and II level students. The amount depends on the geographic area where the country of destination is located:

- Africa, Asia, Middle East, U.S.A and South America: € 2.500 for course attendance;
- Oceania and Japan: € 3.500 for course attendance.

Student Guide: An informative guide about bilateral agreement mobility application procedures will soon be available in the Download Box.
